'APSARAS' MASTER TRANSMISSION HOLOGRAMS - HOW SPECIAL ARE THEY?

These remarkable (and quite spectacular) pulsed-laser life size transmission hologram masters by Al Razutis represent a series of 'frames' in a motion-picture proof of concept project, showing these Buddhist 'sky creatures' (or angels) flying as images focused in space. This motion picture concept featured true holographic motion-pictures projected in space not imitations and fakes as are seen widely.

They were created by Al Razutis as his expression of Buddhist 'Apsaras' for consideration in the use of theater in China on the tales of the 'Silk Road' which was to be artistic directed by Prof. Z. Wang and backed by the provincial government of Lanzhou, China.

Commissioned by Prof. Wang, created by Al Razutis with the directed participation and assistance of Mei-man Lee (actor), Rob Taylor (holography lab director), Allen Miller (holography lab owner), Anne Popperwell (costumes, preparations, and gallery installation) these are a host of masters that can be grouped together and exhibited in a dark gallery space 'with the wind'.

2D PHOTOS OF 'APSARA' HOLOGRAMS SHOW THE INCREDIBLE LIFE-LIKE DETAIL IN THEM

Six of these 'Apsaras' were placed on exhibition at Lanzhou City University Dun-Huang Creative Center in October 2014. They were viewed by government officials, the media, academics and engineers who came to the exhibit and demonstration. They were received enthusiastically and featured on TV in China.

The 12 works remaining for sale (others are in public or private collections) are depicted here along with 2D photos of them. For stereoscopic 3D photos see Apsaras in 3D photos

If you wish to purchase, lease or exhibit these works from the author, and to receive prices, please contact Al Razutis by e-mail for price list at alrazutis@ymail.com

For general terms and conditions see the page: Holographic Art Sales

If you want to see a true holographic image, you have to see it in '3D', like depicted in this anaglyph 3D video (use red / blue glasses). Of course seeing these works in person is to see them 'for real'.
